

American Institute of Constructors

Certification Commission Policy and Procedures

Introduction

The American Institute of Constructors Constructor Certification Commission has developed and formally approved the Policies and Procedures presented in this document to describe the day-to-day business of the Commission.

Definitions of various terms included in the Policies and Procedures can be found in Appendix A. In addition, the Commission's Formal Documents noted in the appropriate Policies and Procedures (see Appendix B for a comprehensive list) are available from the National Office. Finally, a Schedule of Fees charged by the Commission, as referred to in the appropriate policies and procedures can be found in Appendix C.

Changes to this document can only be made as approved by the Commission's Board of Governors. All revisions by date are noted on the respective policy.
