

American Institute of Constructors

Constructor Certification Commission Policy and Procedures No. 1.8

Scoring of Certification Examinations

Policy – All activities associated with the scoring of certification examinations, including conducting pertinent psychometric analyses, review of examination results for indications of cheating including comparison to previous exam administrations to uncover anomalies, will be accomplished by the Management Contractor following nationally accepted standards.

Responsibility – Management Contractor

Reference Commission Documents – None

Procedures – The scoring of certification examinations, including conducting pertinent psychometric analyses and review of examination results for indications of cheating will be done in accordance with the Management Contractor’s psychometrician.

Revision History

Last Revision 04/01/2022